37,000
EARLY GEORGIA MARRIAGES

FOREWORD

The 37,000 early Georgia marriages in this book have mostly appeared in Georgia Pioneers, a quarterly genealogical magazine, published by Mrs. Mary Carter of Albany Ga.

Since these marriages were arranged in alphabetical series over a period of more than 10 years, beginning in 1964, Mrs. Carter and I thought it would indeed be time-saving for researchers if all were incorporated in one volume.

In setting up this book, it was decided to sectionalize it according to the 29 early counties. There is no index except what is shown in the description of the various sections. However, the records for each county are in alphabetical order thereby making it easy and convenient to check out a particular marriage or marriages.

Variations in name-spelling throughout this book is attributed to the lack of educational advantages during the Eighteenth and Nineteenth centuries. Moreover, time has yellowed the pages and faded the ink in record books. Those individuals who spent long hours in courthouse vaults did a commendable job in extracting the records for the GEORGIA PIONEER Genealogical Magazine.

Dear Mary,

Thanks for the Nunnely information which you forwarded. It arrived just a few days after I received my copy of The Genealogical Helper which carried my ad.

Enclosed is a copy of the Certificate of Marriage for W. Henry Sanders and Mary Ann Nunnerly.

It is believed the correct spelling is Nunnally. I plan to try to get a copy of the original marriage entry.

Also enclosing a list of Nunnally marriages which was forwarded to me.

My husband's family moved from Kentucky to Arizona, so he doesn't believe your line would tie in with his.

Will keep your name on file, and will share any further Nunnally (and various spellings) with you.

Thanks again.

Sincerely
Ruby Hendricks

Traced out the Noel line + secured his DAR record - not our line. G. Grant

Gladys: What do you think of this Henry Nunnally m. Eliz. Clay- and look at the DATE-1785. Remember, Henry, or was it Amos, said he was b. in Edgecombe Co.N.C. 1785 Could this be the father of our 'Henry'/?

My comment: I checked the spelling of the name 'NUNNALLY', and there were no variations here in Chesterfield Co. Va. of the spelling. It is notable that this list includes the names of Daniel-Edward-Henry-James-John & William- for the Cumberland Co. N.C. 'NUNNERYS' also carry these given names in their pedigrees. The other given names I do not recognize among the N.C.- S.C. or GA.- annals on this family pedigree. This is not disturbing, for after 50 to 75 yrs. (in America) the families re-married and inter-married among all the families in the various states. This is a good list to have for reference, and that is my reason for taking the time to record them. This book was a typed transcription, and very easy to read. Such references are easy to use, and take little time in comparison to some of the original old books with very fine print, which is hard on the eyes (if you are doing extensive research). If there are any discrepancies in the data we have the source and verify same if necessary.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
APPOINTMENT OFFICE,
22 Feby, 1869

SIR:

Accompanying this you will receive a letter of appointment as Postmaster at Harrisville Texas. The salary to which you will be entitled, and which you will be allowed to retain out of the proceeds of your office, has been fixed at the sum of $12 — per annum until it can be ascertained what the amount of business will be.

You will therefore, at the end of each quarter, make and forward to the Third Assistant Postmaster General a statement, under oath, of the total value of postage stamps cancelled during the quarter. Under the present regulations you are not required to keep a regular account of mails sent and received as heretofore, except only of unpaid mail matter; but informal memoranda, made day by day, of mails sent from your office prepaid by stamps, will enable you to make the required quarterly statement.

Your salary cannot exceed the amount to which the office would be entitled from commissions and box rents under the former law, but will be readjusted at the proper time by the Postmaster General, on the basis of the amount of business done as shown by the quarterly statements above required.

I am, respectfully, &c.,

St. John B. L. Skinner
First Assistant Postmaster General.

1806 LEGISLATIVE PETITION

Transcribed by Charles T. Leonard

To the Honorable the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee

The petition of the Subscribers, Inhabitants of the late Indian boundary North West of Cumberland Mountain respectfully Sheweth:

That they have settled in a fertil tract of country which they suppose to be chiefly vacant and unappropriated or held by fraudalent warrants which must be void in themselves, they therefore hope that you in your wisdom and justice would pass a law to secure each settler in their respective improvement or at least give them the preference to secure the same to themselves. And as the great extent of said settlement renders it indespensably necessary to form new counties-they take the liberty to suggest the following plans as most proper to begin-at the south east corner of Smith County running east until it strikes the extreme height of Cumberland Mountain thence southwardly along the same to where the Indian boundary may cross the same, thence west with the same to a point from whence as due north course will strike the beginning. - Also, that in your wisdom would lay off and establish another new county on the south side of Smith and Wilson counties and reduce Jackson County to constitutional limits and beginning where the Cumberland River enters the State, running south to a point from whence a due west course will strike the south east corner of Smith County, North with the same to the Northern boundary of the State, and east with the same to the beginning, and to lay off another new county on the east side of said county and attach all settlements north east of the wilderness road to the last mentioned new county without which they will be left in a state of anarchy. And, lastly, that you would lay off and establish New District east of Smith and Wilson Counties as the docket of the Superior Court of Mero District has become so much crouded with suits that a suitor on a promisory note cannot recover judgement in less than three years and from the late great increase of population and extension of our frontier settlements we may be certain the number of suits will increase, which renders a new District still more indespensible.

Your petitioners as in duty bound shall ever pray &c.

PETITIONS FOR DIVORCE PRESENTED TO THE TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Divorces in Tennessee, prior to about 1860, were finalized by the General Assembly. The Tennessee State Archives has a card file about 4½ inches thick indexing the various legislative petitions relating to divorces. The following list was taken from the card file and includes those counties in the Upper Cumberland. No attempt has been made to check the contents of the petitions or to see if the divorce was ever finalized.

Since the Tennessee State Archives is in the process of re-organizing and indexing the petitions, this file is very incomplete. Consequently, there may be others that have not been processed.

Copies of the petitions may be obtained from the Tennessee State Archives, 7th Avenue North, Nashville, TN. If the divorce was finalized it would be published in the Acts of the State of Tennessee and could be checked in any large law library having those volumes. Contributed by Charles T. Leonard.

Attention: Research Room

Per our telephone conversation, this date, I am writing to request assistance in obtaining copies of military land warrants which may be housed in the Public Records Division of the State Library or with the Secretary of State in Kentucky.

The copies of land warrants I am searching for are referenced in a book written many years ago by Willard Rouse Jillson titled, Old Kentucky Entries and Deeds and are as follows:

MILITARY WARRANTS (1782-1793)

NAME	ACRES	WARRANT #	SERVICE	DATE
NUNALLY, DAVID	100	4148	VA	4/24/1786
NUNALLY, JOSEPH	100	2635	VA	2/25/1784
NUNNALLY, OBADIAH	100	2605	VA	2/24/1784
NUNNALLY, OBEDIAH	400	2636	VA	2/25/1784

I am enclosing copies of the pages from Mr. Jillson's book which lists the military warrants in which I am interested and also, enclosing my self-addressed and stamped envelope for your convenience to reply to my request.

I appreciate any assistance you might be able to give to me in trying to locate copies of these warrants.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Dear Mary,
Thanks so much for all the information on the Nunneleys.
I was at a standstill on them until I found you. You seem to be much more organized than I am. I haven't been working on this very long and I am sure it shows.
I was so excited to hear about Jackson B. as a founder of Temple.Harrisville couldn't be too far away, but as you say, probably in someones pasture.
I am sending along copys of Jackson B., My Grandfather Joseph Alexander and one of him when he was 35 with his second wife Lillie Sparks, taken in 1903. She was 14. when she married.
I am having regular copies made of these pictures and will send you ones you would like. Sorry to say I do not have any of James D. I do have one of Lucy though. One when she was about 6 , taken by Jackson B. and a later one when she was about 40.

I thought there were two pictures but evidently one did not come out. I am going to write to Mena, which is near there and see if I can get some information on Nunley from them. They were closed when we were through there. I have not been able to connect them to us but then I haven't been at this very long.

My Father insists that there is Indian as he has been told this all his 85 years but he can't give me any other information than that. Most of the time he can't remember much at all then other times he will tell all kind of stories.
When we were in Deadwood last year I tried to find out for sure if James did drive the Stage from Deadwood to Cheyenne but hit a brick wall. Just didn't talk to the right person I guess.
Was Obidiah a brother to Joseph Alexander? A son of Anderson? Or was he a brother to Anderson?

I am sending along some copies of information I recieved from Chesterfield Co. VA. Maybe they will be of use to you. At this time they do not mean much to me.

If I get any other information I will let you know. Will you let me send some money to help with the postage? I really do appreciate getting all this great information.

Sincerely,

Jo

Dear Mary,
It was so nice talking to you, I am always glad to hear from you. You certainly been at this a long time and know what you are doing. I just stumble along, but feel I have contributed a little in tracing our families. I have a lot of little stories that two of my Great Grandmothers told me when I was younger, and because I enjoyed writing I did write them down. I am hoping my Grandchildren will enjoy reading them in years to come. My Mother wrote down things her Grandmother told her and I really enjoy reading them.
The Lady that wants this paper certified, I suppose that I can have a paper notorized that it has been in the family for my 58 years. My Grandfather Joseph A. showed it to me when I was four or five years old. When he died in 1939 My Father kept it for me. I guess my Father finally decided I was old enough to recieve it 5 years ago.I guard it with my life.

My Aunt told me that James's wife Lucy who Married Robert Cochran died in 1936 and is buried in a little cemetary in Hunnington Beach CA. I am checking that out so I can have the correct dates. Will send it on to you when I get it.
I am sending some money to help with the cost of the copys and mailing, I know how expensive it can get. I really appreciate all the information you have given me.

I am anxious to travel in Texas and Okla. and visit these places our ancestors have lived. If my husband ever retires that is what we will do.

Thanks again for all your help, Maybe someday we can meet and really exchange stories.

Sincerely,

Jo Jo

Dear Mary,

Please forgive my delay in writing but after the 1st packet I thought I had plenty of time since you were going to TX and then whamo, here comes the 2nd packet. Don't slow down now, you're on a roll. This is wonderful.

When you called I immediately called Betty so there were 3 of us walking the floor. I copied the 1st pac the day after receiving it and mailed it to her. She called as soon as she got it and was thrilled over Elizabeth's bd. I'm copying the 2nd pac today and will send it on, also copied info onto her pictures. I'll bet your blood pressure was sky high while you were 'digging' all this out.

I looked in my 'Compendium' at place names of the U.S. in 1870. Did not find a Pleasant Hill in TX but Harrisville was there. From working the census we know that little towns recorded in one survey would vanish 10 years later.

I don't have any new info to send Jo and most of my 'old' came from you. I wish I could see her face when she discovers all the Baldwins, Wades, and Easleys. I remember well. I'm sending Eliz. dr and fmly charts if you want to include them. Help separate all her 'new' cousins. I wrote her address down when you called and I swear I can't find it. Bettey needed it to show where the list of children came from.

I'm going to wind down so I can write Betty a note and get this copied and mailed. Ironic that this history is arriving in time for our country's birthday.

Thanks and Happy 4th,

Love -
Glenda

THE RUSSELL MAP OF KENTUCKY

This map, originally produced in 1794, was the first good map of Kentucky and the adjoining territories. It shows seven subdivisions of the three original Kentucky counties—Lincoln, Fayette and Jefferson. The Russell map was republished in 1795 with slight revision by John Reed in New York, but without author's name.

basis of priority. Virginia also recognized and gave preferred rights covering certain quantities of land, usually 400 acres, to those settlers who prior to January 1, 1778, had made "a crop of corn or had resided in the country upon the western waters for at least one year." There were secured in the same manner pre-emption rights to not exceeding 400 acres per person. If prior to January 1, 1778, settlers "had marked out or chosen for themselves any waste or unappropriated lands, building a house or hut or made other improvements thereon", pre-emption rights were allowed covering any reasonable quantity of land including improvements but not to exceed 1,000 acres. Single pre-emptions, however, were not allowed for more than one such improvement.

Another class of rights of pre-emption to not more than 400 acres was also given. These were called "village rights" and were accorded to families who had settled in villages or stations but had raised a crop elsewhere. These rights were based upon priority. Pre-emption of 1,000 acres adjoining actual settlements was also allowed upon a basis of priority. Entries too were recognized upon military warrants, treasury warrants and pre-emption warrants where departure was made from the land to which the rights were attached, the basis of validation resting as previously upon priority of location with the county surveyor. County court orders in favor of poor persons were also recognized.[15] For the completion of details necessary to each of these land rights twelve months was generally allowed prior to forfeiture.

A further result of the general land law of May, 1779, was the division of the western territory of Virginia into four districts, the last or fourth of which comprised Kentucky County. For the Kentucky District, as for the others, the Governor was authorized with the advice of the Council to appoint four commissioners under the seal of the Commonwealth "to continue in office eight months for the purpose of collecting, adjusting and determining such claims, and four months thereafter for the purpose of adjusting the claims of settlers on lands surveyed for the aforesaid companies".[16]

At the same session an act was passed establishing a general land office. This law recited the terms and manner of granting waste and unappropriated lands.[17] It provided for a register, the issuance of land warrants by purchase through the Treasury, the appointment of county surveyors and deputies, and recording of land entries. Many minor but important details were included, particularly with respect to the entering of the land and preparation of the subsequent grants. Provision was introduced to prevent fraud in these land transactions, but unfortunately this portion of the law was quite frequently evaded and many unjust and indefensible claims were set up for choice land situated on the waters of Upper Salt River, Elkhorn, Stoner, Hinkston and other creeks in the much coveted Blue Grass country.

In the succeeding pages there are presented as completely as it was possible to get them the old land entries of this early Kentucky period. The Lincoln County entries, Chapter II, number 4,959, and extend from 1779 to 1787. They consist of two books. The Fayette County entries, Chapter III, number 7,008, date from 1782 to 1794 and are found in four books. The Jefferson County entries, Chapter IV, most numerous of all, total 11,518. They begin in 1779 and end in 1785. The Military Warrants, Chapter V, comprise a group of medium size totaling 4,744, and extend from 1782 to 1793. The Military entries, Chapter VI, comprise the smallest group of all, with only 1,567 names extending in the period of record from 1784 to 1797. All of the above enumerated records are found in the Kentucky Land Office at Frankfort, Kentucky, except the Jefferson County entries, Chapter IV, which are found, as evident copies, in two old volumes lodged in the custody of the Jefferson County Court Clerk in Louisville.* There is reason to believe that because of their relatively small number the Lincoln entries may be incomplete, but if additional entry books for this old county still exist diligent search for them has failed to bring them to light.

The latter part of this volume is devoted to indexing the old manuscript records in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Appeals at Frankfort, Kentucky. During the early days of this Commonwealth the law provided for the recording of deeds and many other important legal instruments in Frankfort. Chapter VII presents the grantees 5,208, being recorded in these old deeds; Chapter VIII exhibits the grantors, who total 5,619. Chapter IX shows Court of Appeals, Deeds—Wills, and Chapter X presents a cross-indexed list of 1,909 grantors and grantees in power of attorney. Transcript of these latter records, Chapters VII to X, may be secured from the Clerk of the Court of Appeals at Frankfort, while for the former—Chapters II to VI—application should be made to the Register of the Land Office at Frankfort, except in the special case of the Jefferson County entries—Chapter IV— to the Clerk of Jefferson County, Louisville, Kentucky.

*These volumes had been loaned to Col. Reuben T. Durrett, President of The Filson Club, and when his personal library was sold to the University of Chicago in May, 1913, they, through some error, were included in the shipment. There they were located by Mr. R. C. Ballard Thruston, then Vice-President of the Club, and, upon his calling attention to the fact that they were official records of the state of Kentucky, the University returned them to the Jefferson County Court House.

Fire Erupts at Texaco Refinery in California

LOS ANGELES (AP) — About 90 firefighters battled an oil refinery blaze Wednesday that shot flames 100 feet into the night sky, but there were no reports of injuries, officials said.

The fire was still burning out of control one hour after it ignited shortly before 4 p.m., and residents of the area were told to prepare to evacuate their homes if the fire should spread, said city fire department spokesman Greg Acevedo.

The cause of the blaze at the Texaco refinery in the Wilmington section of Los Angeles was undetermined, said fire department spokesman Ed Reid.

Dear Catherine,

Received your letter concerning your ancestor, James Edmond Nunnelly of Kentucky. I have searched through my Nunneley and variants material and find no James Edmond.

The 1850 census index of Kentucky shows the following names:

Barren	John B. Nunnally
	Josiah W. Nunally
	Morris Nunnally
	Thomas G. Nunnally
	William B. Bunnally
	William L. B. Nunnally
Carter Co.	Mary Nunley
Fayette Co.	D. Nunnely
Greenup Co.	Daniel Nunley
	Elijah Nunley
	William Nunley
Hart Co.	Daniel Nunalie
Owen Co.	John C. Nunley
	Thomas C. Nunley
Pulaski Co.	Anderson Nunneley
	James Nunnelly
	John P. Nunnely
	Thomas Nunely
	William Nunley
Scott Co.	George Nunnelly
	John Nunnelly

Since your James Edmond Nunnelley was born in 1853, he would only be seven years old in 1860 and still living with his parents. I would suggest you begin reading the county census records based on the 1850 index. Both Barren and Pulaski have a large number of Nunneley and variants. Though there are a large number listed, it only covers eight counties and you just might find your James living with his parents. It would seem easier to begin with the above counties where there is proof that Nunneleys had lived ten years earlier.

Hope this helps and sorry I have no information about James Edmond. If you do find him let me know his parents and I may be able to then add something else from my records.

Good luck in your research.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary,

Sure hope we can be of help to one another & perhaps even be distant Cousins. One thing for sure we share one love & that being genealogy.

My grandfather was James Edmond Nunnelley on his Marriage License but spelled differently on his death cert. (Nunnally) He was born 1853 - died 1916. Married to Mary E. Goodman in Martin Co., Ind. 8 Aug. 1874. Died at Washington, In 20 Feb. 1916 of Lab-Pneumonia with Asthma as a secondary Contributor. He lived most of his life in Washington, In & had 7 children. I do not know his father's name or mother. My grand-mother had unknown on his Death Cert. but did say he was from Ky. Said he was born in Ky on 16 Dec 1853.

Could we in any way be related to your Mary R. Nunnelley? I am just now doing All Family names & variants

My comment: I had never looked in Texas for any of our lines- and did not ever know of any of the 'Nunnerys' (or variants) going there. All these names certainly indicate that they came out of VA. but perhaps too late to help us identify them- as this date is 1852. These may be about the 3rd or 4th generation out of VA.

For several months I corresponded with different people in England trying to learn something about the surname of NUNNERY. A Mr. Readmon, archivist, in London suggested that I write to a Mr. G. D. Bark, Nottingham, England. He said that Mr. Bark was a noted genealogist and would be reliable.

I asked Mr. Bark three things when I wrote to him.

1. Could he tell us anything about the origin and meaning of the Surname of NUNNERY.
2. I gave him the name of Richard NUNNERY, cited for swearing Henrico County, Virginia about 1690 - 1692. This was the earliest name of a NUNNERY that I could find anywhere, and still is.
3. Mrs. H. F. Nunnery had looked in the Morman Library in Salt Lake City (an internationally known genealogy library) for the surname of NUNNERY. One entry intrigued her. It read: John NUNNERY, ba 1714; married 1739, Roberta Willerton, born Pinchbeck, Lincoln, England 1718.

You voted last August at this reunion to spend $100.00 on this research. To date we have spent $92.00 of this amount. Here is a quick summary (if that is possible) of what Mr. Bark found on the subject. (His report is available to you on the table down front.)

1. Origin and interesting information about the name of NUNNERY.
   An old author on the subject of surname origin (British) is C. W. Bardsley. He is considered about the best. He lists NUNNERY and NUNNERLY. He believes these two names are the same with variant spelling. Meaning listed is "Nuns meadow or residence of Nuns".

Under interesting information he found from the County of Chester 22 May 1400 an entry of court records a David de Nonnely and in 1441 Roger Nonelay of County of Salop described as being a king's servant. This entry is from the 15th century.

In Bartholemew's Gazatteer of the British Isles, there is a place named as NONELEY, a hamlet in North Salop, and Mr. Bark says that without any doubt, this has given rise to the surname spelled as NONNELY and NONELAY which in turn became the NUNNELEY mentioned in his report. This pronunciation would be indistingishable from the NUNNALEY mentioned in this report of Lincolnshire (and other allied spellings, including NONALE, etc, etc.,) and it becomes quite evident that some NUNNERYs could very well have derived their surname from the Shropshire hamlet of Noneley, and not from having lived near a nunnery. As for the change in spelling/pronunciation of "-o-" to "-u-" (as from Noneley to Nunneley) this change is well documented in a general sense; in the English Language, as can easily be seen by examining the origin of words such as "Nun", "Nunnery", etc., in the New English Dictionary. For example, when we look up the word "nunnery" which meant a building which housed Nuns just as a monastery housed monks, the old spellings given as nonnerie	13th-17th C	Most Commonly nonerys	13th-15th C	"

nonery	14th-16th C	"
noonery	16th C	"
nunnerie	14th 17th C	"
nunnery	17th C	"

and this word is now only spelled as nunnery, of course. And we see this transition in spelling from "o" to "u" from the 13th C to the present day.

2. About the second question concerning our name of Richard NUNNERY found in America 1690 - 1692.

Mr. Bark has drawn up a provisional pedigree of NUNNERY, beginning with William NUNYLIE. His will was proved 1604 in Lincoln County, England. About two generations or more later we find Luke NUNNELE who married Deborah ______________ and whose will was proved 1711. Luke was the father of John NUNNERY who married a Mary Hammers and they are the parents of John NUNNERY of Pinchbeck, Lincoln, born 1714 and our third question to Mr. Bark. This John of Pinchbeck lived to be 52 years of age, died 1766, and his wife lived to be 76 and died 1789.

Mr. Bark found the birth and death records in Pinchbeck, Rebekah Woolerton rather than Roberta Willerton which was listed in the Morman Library. This entry I might mention was interesting to all of us as it was the first time anyone had known for sure from where a NUNNERY might have come to America. (From beyond the seas, that is.) Mr. Bark thinks that Roberta Willerton or Rebekah Woolerton may have been a variant spelling of her name. Names were pronounced and the writer spelled and wrote what he thought he had heard - so the difference in spelling.

To date we have not connected the NUNNERYS in England directly with the Nunnerys in America since we have not found an entry of a NUNNERY departing England or anywhere. I stated to Mr. Bark in a letter that the archivist in London had written that there were so few records of emigrants coming to America that we probably could not find an entry. However, Mr. Bark checked by having a friend in London go through several books of indexed entries. His report is part of this record. Perhaps Richard 1690-1692 is the first one to come here from beyond the seas.

Just last week in the McComb Library I found these names listed below under Virginia Wills and Administration. These names show the variant spelling such as Mr. Bark had mentioned in England continued in America.

Richard NUNALEY, Henrico County will 1727 (this is surely Richard who spelled his name as NUNNERY in 1690 in Henrico County)

NUNNALLY, Elizabeth Will 1785 Ameilia County
NUNALLT, Jno P. Will 1789 Chesterfield County
NUNNALLEE, Walter Will 1784 " "
NUNNALLY, Jno Will 1765 " "
Walter 1773 Inventory of goods " "
David 1777 Inventory of Goods " "
Mel 1784 Will " "
Henry 1787 Will " "
Samson 1797 Inventory of goods " "
Archelaus 1795 Inventory of goods Powhater County
NUNNELLY David 1794 Inventory of goods Chesterfield County
NUNNERY, Bartlett 1797 Inventory of goods " "

Copies of these wills may be obtained and I am writing for them in the hope that the will itself will reveal more names and dates. I also found in Virginia Land Grants the name of NUNERY, Sherman who was granted 773 acres of land on 1/29/1783 in Lincoln County. Notice the variant spellings. Probably the same family.

I wrote to Mr. Bark after receiving his report to ask further instructions as I was unable to find Salop on my map. He wrote these instructions:

> Bartholemew's Gazatteer states that NONELY, Salop is a hamlet 2 miles WSW of Wem. Wem is given as 10½ miles north of Shrewsburg. Salop is another name for the English county generally called Shropshire.

Mr. Bark suggests further research on his part in England as it is too soon to be dogmatic and say that the Lincolnshire Nunnerys (John of Pinchbeck) have or have not NONELEY, County of Salop, as their origin.

I have a map here at the front which shows just where in England---Noneley is located and Lincoln County where Pinchbeck is located. This is very interesting since it is only about 60 miles between the two places. Please, come by and take a good look.

Our researcher states that NUNNERY is not a common name and that he would be interested to search further. He feels that if we traced further back as we might find the spelling to have been NUNNERY much earlier.

He found the first NUNAYLIEs were farmers and in one place gentlemen, and one an eminent medical man.

At least one NUNNERY came to America years ago and started this family. Let's find him.

Dear Mrs Coon,

Many thanks for your check for 12.00, and for your letter.

Bartholomew's Gazetteer states that Nonely, Salop is a Hamlet 2 miles WSW of Wem. Wem is given as 10½ miles North of Shrewbury. So good hunting! Salop is another name for the English County generally called Shropshire.

Regarding further work on the surname in general, I would suggest a day's work at the Library of the Soc. of Genealogists, checking the Great Card Index and Boyd's Marriage Index from 1538 onwards. This latter index is a huge index made up of hundreds of volumes, and the aim would be to see how the surname was distributed in England. It is very important that this check is made by someone who thoroughly understands what is involved - if, for example, you wrote to someone in London asking them to check this index under NUNNERY and NUNNERLEY, you would be effectively wasting time and money to some extent (and probably to a n important extent). If I did the work, the cost would be inthe region of $50.00 (50 dollars) I think.

It might well help you if an attempt was made to extend the Lincolnshire "Nunnery" pedigree backwards from ca. 1700. Since the name Richard occurred in the 18th C., it might be found to occur before 1700. If you wanted this attempt made, I think that 50 dollars might yield something helpful, but would prefer 75 dollars to give more scope.

If you wished me to do further work, I should be pleased to do so, but would need to warn you that there might be a considerable delay before I could do it. I should do it as soon as possible, but that might not be so quickly as on the previous occasion, I fear, and could be 6 - 12 months, possibly.

Sincerely,

England as Northop at an early period; v. Thorp.

Dear Mary,

Here are some goodies for your files. Elizabeth Dannelly is one sweet lady. They are of no help to me on my Nunleys but they sure did come in handy for a friend of mine whose ancestors are James Franklin Nunnelee and his father Wm. Womack Nunnelee who were born in VA but died in GA. I sent copies to this friend yesterday. It made my day, knowing that I was able to make somebody happy. This friend of mine, Lucille Michie in CA, is certain that James Franklin's first wife Kesiah was a Cherokee but she can't find what her last name was. They were married in VA but my VA records of marriages doesn't list them. We are having lots of fun but getting nowhere on our Cherokee ancestors. I'm still stuck with my John Nunley whose mother was a Cherokee half-breed. He was born around 1775.

Write sometime.

Love,

Fran

Letter from Elizabeth Dannelly

August 17, 1982

Dear Fran:

So glad to get your letter and the copy of Martha Cook's letter to Mary written in 1979. I now know that she has the same line as the Lucille Marshall I corresponded with for several years, but Lucille never told me of her. She may not have been interested in her ancestors then.

Since I have to go to Marshall (15 miles distant) to get copying done I am sending you the 5 sets of DAR papers which you can copy and return to me at your convenience. I have studied them carefully and can't see that they help me at all. Maybe you will find something I have overlooked I was so sure Obadiah who married Elizabeth Baldwin in Amelia County was mine that I also got his pension papers. However, the only additional information in them is the marriage bond made by Obadiah and C. William Baldwin, who probably was Elizabeth's father. Obadiah was older than Anderson, but not old enough to be his father . However, I think there had to be a close connection. It is interesting that so many of these DAR papers have Burton connections. If you think Mary does not have these, please make a copy for her, too.

In one of her letters she said she thought Henry Nuneley was something we should check out. I got his pension papers and am sending you a copy of the letter written back in 1930 summarizing the file. If you think Mary doesn't have this, please make her a copy of it, too.

So we don't duplicate our efforts, I have written to North Carolina Land Office for additional information on the grant to the heirs of Andrewson Nunnery. and I have also written NC to see if they have marriage bonds for Anderson and Martha. The 1790 census lists Anderson in Halifax District. Then I wrote the Anderson County, TN clerk to see if there was a will for Henry. Will let you know if any of these strike pay dirt!

Yes, you guess right. I was a working girl for a quarter of a century, including 17 years in Washington, DC where I met and married Amos Payne. Incidentally, he was from San Antonio and was then trustee of an estate that included substantial property in SA so we were down there several times a year. We often flew there from Washington, and then when we moved back to Jefferson in 1958 we would drive down. He loved San Antonio and fully expected to go back there when he retired, but in the meantime he got to know Jefferson, and he soon came to love it like I do. He died in January of 1975 and sixteen months later I married my first cousin for nearly six years of happiness that few know. He was 76 and had never been married before. And because I had lost my first husband I was able to appreciate Jimmie so much more. We had been very close always because I was his only girl cousin, and he was my favorite boy cousin. It is very difficult to adjust to a change like that in your life, and I am doubly glad of our new found friendship that gives me a new interest and something I enjoy so much. Now I rattle around in this big old house all by myself, and miss him every minute of every day.

I have enjoyed Mary's letters like I do yours and have sent her all the things I have sent you until today. I hope we can get together some day, and maybe you could come up from San Antonio and the three of us could get to know each other. In May of last year Jimmie and I went to Augusta, Georgia, and a "cousin" like you came up from Miami, Florida to meet us there. We had a wonderful time getting to know each other. Then in July we went to San Antonio for theGrinnell Family Association get together. It was at the Menger.

You never did tell me where you work. I would be interested to know. Do you wear SAS shoes? I got some at the factory last summer and just love them. My nephew who lives in San Antonio was here this past weekend, but I wouldn't have any idea how to tell you about him. He has an unlisted telephone, so I didn't even get in touch with him last summer. He was in the Air Force when he went there but got out several years ago and I really don't know what he does.

I have some good friends from Washington days in Castroville. We stopped by to see them last summer, and then went to Comfort to buy some skirts.

I am not writing Mary today, but if you want to send her a copy of this letter it will be fine.

Sincerely,

Rev. amd 1812

Dear MADAM:

I advise you from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, S. 4626, it appears that Henry Nuneley was born in Chesterfield County, Virginia, date not given.

While residing in Chesterfield County, Virginia, he enlisted and served on various tours, amounting to at least two years in all, no specific dates given, as a private under Captains King Graves, George Marcum, and David Patterson, Colonels Robert Goode, Robison and St. George Tucker in the Virginia Troops. He was in the battles of Guilford Court House and Petersburg and at the siege of Yorktown.

After the Revolution, he continued to live in Chesterfield County, Virginia, for three or four years, then moved to Halifax County, Virginia, lived there about five years, then moved to Washington County, Virginia , where he lived four or five years, and then moved to the State of Tennessee.

He was allowed pension on his application executed August 30, 1832, at which time he was "between seventy and eighty years old", and resided in Anderson County, Tennessee, where he had lived for thirty years.

There are no data as to his family.

The above noted is the only soldier named Henry Nuneley found on the Revolutionary War records of this bureau.

Very truly yours,

E. W. Morgan
Acting Commissioner

Now, we can use these names and check them all against those Cumberland, N. which I copied from the film, showing land deeded to almost every one of these family names. I just wish I could find out more about the Amos and Archelaus Nunnery which was listed in that Wms.burg Gazette. Also, I do not see the Henry Nunnery who married Nancy Rolfe among these on this page. I am now confused if this 'Wolfe' is wrong, or is it another marriage, as it is later than 1800.

I have wondered about Rolfe as it is "Indian"

Gladys: These notes I took out of this one book. It is the most condensed list for the 'Nunnerys' that I have ever found in any one book. It was typed, and the brides indexed in the back, so then I turned back to the pages and listed all the women. All the time, I have wondered and wondered if there might not be some older women in the family (?). All my previous notes were just one or two from a book here and there. Some of these I have never seen before. I consider this record very GOOD so far as it goes- it does give us some names which we might be able to segregate into the family lines. Amos MUST have been the oldest NUNNERY, and MAYBE the oldest 'Henry' a brother, as we have suspected.

I had to prove this Henry was not ours - he died 1840. Mine was living in Talbot Co Ga 1850 census

FROM: The NUNNERY-WOLF-PRICE FAMILY 1808-1963
Compiled by Rosa Lee Price Paschal (Mrs John Jones Paschal) 4131 Council Circle, Jackson, Miss.

"HENRY NUNNERY and NANCY WOLF were married April 8,1808. Their record prior to this time is not known to this descendant except that it has been family tradition that HENRY NUNNERY was from Cumberland County or Roberson Co, N.C. and his wife Nancy Wolf was from South Carolina. This has never been substantiated by the court house or family records until recently while doing research for this little family history, Juanita Ferguson Norton found, in a Record of Deeds of Cumberland Co, N C, Book 40 p.468, date of July 23, 1834, an account of a most interesting business transaction between one HENRY NUNNERY and a James Price to which 'indenture each man set his hand and seal.' James Price was to execute the sale of a part of Henry Nunnery's plantation estate. He was to settle a few small debts that he owed and to collect some payments due him, two of which were from Cumberland County and Sampson County, for his services in building a bridge across Black River and in constructing a road leading thereto in each of these counties in North Carolina. He owned 15,000 feet of timber on AMOS NUNNERY'S place and 5,000 feet on McChloe Autrey's land. In the sales, HENRY NUNNERY reserved all necessary furniture, one wheel, cards, one loom, working tools, and arms for muster. He detailed other explicit instructions.

James Price was to receive as compensation for his trouble five per centum of all sales and was 'to have and to hold, occupy and enjoy the property conveyed without molestation from anyone,' which to this compiler seems to show a feeling of love and confidence for and in James Price for faithfully executing the trust reposed in him. This document is evidence that this James Price had the unquestioned confidence of a man by the name of Henry Nunnery who had accumulated an estate of some wort and who, for reasons not stated in the contract, could not manage this himself. " (Mrs. Paschal has died since writing above- her dau.so advised.

Cumberland Co Marriage Records show HENRY NUNNERY married NANCY WOLFE April 5, 1808- Bondsman was Amos Nunnery- witness was Robinson Mumford.

Also Cumberland Co N C marriages show James Price married Clarkey Nunnery, Oct 3, 1835 - Dolphin A.Davis, bond. The Nunnery-Price Bible states that James Price and Clarky Nunnery (youngest child of Henry Nunnery and Nancy Wolfe) married the year after the business deal just reported as happening in Cumberland Co,N C, where our family tradition says their families lived before the War between the States. The Nunnery-Price-Wolfe Bible owned by Eula Lamb of Meridian,Miss shows children of Henry Nunnery and Nancy Wolfe Nunnery as Susannah Nunnery b.May 29,1810: She married Olin Hair Feb 10,1830. (2) Charlotte Nunnery b.July 1,1812, married to Wm Pursall Oct 13,1830: she died Feb 10,1838: (3)Clarky Nunnery was born Dec.10,1815.

The Bible states HENRY NUNNERY died 1840.

I had to prove this Henry Nunnery was not mine - he was son of Amos Nunnery - Amos Nunnery, out of Halifax Co, N C- received a Pension for his services in Rev. No S 8923: I have copy of said record. Also his will names a son William, a son HENRY and a dau Elizabeth who married a Grice.

The maternal great grandfather of Gladys S:Grant was HENRY NUNNERY who married Martha Ingram- he was b 1785- (Talbot Co,Ga census 1850 - stated he was 65 yrs- born in N C)

Dearest Mary,

Mrs. Dannelly wrote to you and so you know by now she is working on Edward Nunneley and maybe your Anderson also.

Here is a copy of my last letter to her. I thought you would like to read it.

Hope everthing is as well as can be hoped with your sister. Please write me later when you feel up to it.

Dear Fran:

Finally talked to John Fred Nunnelee, Jr., of 1001 North Ranney, Sikeston, Missouri, concerning Edward Nunnelee of Nunnelee, Hickman County, Tennessee.

The following is his line:

Edward Marcus Nunnelee - RW
James L. Nunnelee, M.D.
John Hamilton Nunnelee
John Fred Nunnelee
John Fred Nunnelee, Jr.

He does not know the names of any of the other children of Edward Marcus Nunnelee.

Several years ago, he went to Nunnelee Tennessee and was directed to a farm where he was told information could be obtained concerning the Nunnelee family. As he related - the coffee was still steaming in the cups on the table, but no one would answer the door.

John Nunnelee, Jr. at the beginning of our conversation, ask if I was calling concerning the escrow account in Beaumont, Texas. I assured him I knew nothing about the account, do you? His story concerns the disappearance of the family bible, the escrow account supposedly worth several millions and the Nunn-Busch Shoe Company. Seems the money belonged to a "Will Nunnelee" who HAD Texas land and is still held in escrow. He believes the Will Nunnelee and Edward Nunnelee are the same family.

He is absolutely a delightful person to visit with and spent 25 minutes visiting even though I received little information. He suggested that I contact his cousin, Lucy Nunnelee Morris of Mounds, Oklahoma to see if she could help with any information. Also, mentioned a Frank Nunnelee (not sure of spelling of last name)who lives in Memphis, Tenn. He does not know his relationship, but thinks he may have some information.

He is interested in obtaining Howard Nunley's address and told him I would ask you to obtain it for me. He said that Howard left him "hanging" since 1962 and he wondered where he was and if he was still alive.

John, Jr., has some papers which he said he would have copied and send to me - will send on to you when received.

Under separate cover today, I am sending the Tennessee Census you wante to borrow and copy. Thanks much for the latest wills, etc. Think we sho write a book, a mystery, entitled "Nunneley, Nunley, Nunnelee and Varia bet it would be a best seller!

As ever -

Dear Elizabeth:

The affidavit which you sent puzzles me. I have studied it and compared it with the info in John F. Nunnelee, Jr.'s 6/22/62 letter to my friend Howard Nunley, and it doesn't all fit together. J. F. N., Jr. quotes a letter from his GF and that GF keeps referring to Edward who came from Scotland. He doesn't say one word about William Edward Nunnalee.

Does this mean that William Edward was the father of the Edward who fought in the Rev. War? I take it that way. It looks to me like you have gone back another generation and don't realize it. If this is so, it will mean alot to you folks working on that line.

The affidavit states that William Edward was the father of Edward, Wm. L. and Mary, all born in Craven Co, NC, and that son Edward went to VA in 1822. This has me confused, because we know that Edward was in the RW prior to 1822. I must be all mixed up, so please straighten me out. Too many Edwards to figure out. I love to solve a problem, but this one has me whipped.

I will be glad when Mary Nunnelley gets back to genealogy. She will just love this new info (affidavit). We have been writing to one another since 1978. She is a darling girl.

I am returning your Richard Nunnaley page which states he came to Boston on the Ship Increase. I will of course send a copy to Mary, but I will tell Mary, just as I am now telling you, I do not think the Richard who came to America on that ship was named Nunnally. I feel sure it was Richard Nunn, just as the genealogist Joe Shortel said, and also said ~~for~~ by a certified genealogist named Major P. Nunnaley, now deceased. I feel sure both men checked those records thoroughly. I believe "Holmes Corey Inc." just added the "ally" to Nunn to make you happy, hoping that you would buy their gift items for sale, using the "Nunnally" name inscribed on those items. Right now, this is not important to you since at the moment your "Edward" doesn't tie in with Richard, but I believe it will eventually.

Your Edward came from Virginia, just like all the other Nunnaleys did, and so I am positive they were all related.

I am enclosing some copies of "goodies" that Mary has sent me through the years that I believe you will enjoy. In a few days, I will send you a copy of Shortal's complete booklet, just as soon as I have time to xerox it for you.

Sincerely, Fran Koole

P.S. I will send a copy of this letter to Mary.

The information requested is noted below and is the earliest record of arrival of the surname to the United States.

We would be able to prepare any of the gift items found in the enclosed catalogue using the information found below.

Please return a copy of this form when ordering or note information found when doing personal research.

 NUNNALLY ******

THE NAME

The spelling of NUNNALLY as now used by a larger number of those of English origin, descended from early arrivals in the Virginia Colony is strictly an American Variant. Such spelling is not found in the early 16th and 17th Century English records, and today is rarely if ever so used. Some English records dating between 1586 and 1729 give this family, among others:

NONILY, NUNLY, NUNILY, NUNNER, NUNNERY, NUNNEY, NUNALE, NUNNILY, NUNNALEA.

In 1616 there was in existence the village of NUNNELY[28] in the Parish of Salop, County of Shropshire.

In addition to NUNNALLY, the Virginia branch of the family of today uses several other variants such as : NUNNALLEE, NUNNALLEY, NUNNALY, NUNNLEY and others. Since the first arrivals early in the settlement of the Virginia Colony, many ways of indicating the name were used from the simple NUNLY and NUNRY, until the present time wherein the several branches have stabilized their individual preference. While some retain the original root name of NUNN, many others use a more elongated form developed over the years.

The various spellings in earlier years were caused by local and colloquial pronunciation, the phonetic spelling of clerks and copyists, the limits of literacy, and very frequently the almost impossibility of correctly interpreting the fancy and exaggerated penmanship formerly in vogue.

As an example of the difficulty in maintaining a standardized

 NUNNALLY ******

THE NAME

The spelling of NUNNALLY as now used by a larger number of those of English origin, descended from early arrivals in the Virginia Colony is strictly an American Variant. Such spelling is not found in the early 16th and 17th Century English records, and today is rarely if ever so used. Some English records dating between 1586 and 1729 give this family, among others: NONILY, NUNLY, NUNILY, NUNNER, NUNNERY, NUNNEY, NUNALE, NUNNILY, NUNNALEA.

In 1616 there was in existence the village of NUNNELY[28] in the Parish of Salop, County of Shropshire.

In addition to NUNNALLY, the Virginia branch of the family of today uses several other variants such as : NUNNALLEE, NUNNALLEY, NUNNALY, NUNNLEY and others. Since the first arrivals early in the settlement of the Virginia Colony, many ways of indicating the name were used from the simple NUNLY and NUNRY, until the present time wherein the several branches have stabilized their individual preference. While some retain the original root name of NUNN, many others use a more elongated form developed over the years.

The various spellings in earlier years were caused by local and colloquial pronunciation, the phonetic spelling of clerks and copyists, the limits of literacy, and very frequently the almost impossibility of correctly interpreting the fancy and exaggerated penmanship formerly in vogue.

As an example of the difficulty in maintaining a standardized

Note: Mr. Nunnally was a Certified Genealogist, now deceased.

usage, it is noted that Private John Nunnally of the 15th Virginia Regiment, Continental Line, has in a ten months period a different surname on pay and muster rolls, nine times.

While there were many persons in Virginia prior to the 1790 census, tabulated as NUNNALLY, we find no such usage in North Carolina. In this State, however, there were NUNNERY and NUNNALD. We also have the spelling to a limited extent in Virginia of NUNNERY. It is interesting to note that in Cumberland County, Virginia in 1779 THOMAS NUNNERY purchased land: one of the witnesses was his brother who signed as ARCHELAUS NUNNALLY. A year later in 1780 this land was sold under the name of THOMAS NUNNALLY. Both the NUNNALLY and NUNNERY are now well established lines, and there is little doubt that both stem from the same root.

"Hotten's" records indicate that one RICHARD NUNN, age 19 arrived in the Ship "Increase" April 1635[25]; also that ADDAM NUNNICK, age 25, came in the ship "DAVID" in September of the same year,[26] These are very likely the progenitors of the family of today.

All of the early Virginia Branch of the family which today use the name NUNNALLY or one of the closely allied variants, almost certainly stem from their earlier English progenitors in Essex, Suffolk, Northampton, Norfolk and other Counties, originally NUN, NUNN and NUNNE. The expansion of the name is assumed with good evidence, to be by one of the usual methods of deriving surnames, namely identification with the area of residence. Probally beginning with NUNN ATTE LEY (Nunn of the grass lands or pastures) gradually becoming NUNN A LEY, NUNNALEA, NUNNALEY, NUNNALLY.

wife Sarah ?

Consider the will of WILLIAM NUNNALEA Yeoman of Pytchley, Northampton, England 20 June 1626, leaves his movables to his wife and to his brother, LAWRENCE NUNN L 5",

The English families of the name were mostly of the Gentry and Yeomantry, using as their Coat-of-Arms: Crest; a Bull's Head erased, per fess, ar. and gu., armed and orined, of the last.

Arms : Sa. a saltire between four lions gambs or.

Motto: Suviter in mode, fortier in re.

The NUNNALLY and Variants of English lineage, generally use the above Coat and Motto. There are some branches, however, of the NUN and NUNNE line that have adopted as their Crest either: An arm, in armour, embowed, in hand a battle axe: or the same except with arm vambraced.

There are also in America today some NUNNALLY'S / Variants of Irish descent who sometimes use a composite of the Coats of the families of NUN and ALEGH (NUNALEGH, NUNALLEY, etc.)

Two Crests are used together above the Shield denoting the two families united. On the Shield: Vert. a saltire between four eagles, displ or.

The same Motto is used: Suaviter in modo, fortier in re.

A Welsh Branch of the family, who generally spell the name as NUNNELEE, came to Virginia in the early 1800's. Later they moved into Georgia, Alabama, Florida and other Southern States.

Suaviter in modo, fortier in re.

" Mildly in manner - boldly in action. "

My comment: I picked this book at random from the 'LONDON' section (?) as there seems to be so many old books full of historical information- some of them very old, fine print, not indexed, and about all you can do is sit and stare, or read an amusing little (local) item denoting some of their very personal and stringent LAWS, and they are not all amusing- more of them are cruel in every sense of the word, compared to the code of ethics we are now enjoying (in America).

I think all of these records listed above will be of vital interest to all the 'NUNNERYS/NUNNALLYS'. These records are all older than the first ones I found in Boyd's Marriages (in England). I had no clue at all to take me to this Parish- but, I have been pecking away now and then, back into England to see just who I could find, and where they lived, how they spelled the name, thinking it would be helpful to unify some of the records we find here in America. I did have one or two 'NUNNERY' marriages in the 1700's I think (out of Boyd's), and it was spelled " " " in that locality. There is no way of telling where it started. As you go back, the spelling of any and all names are worse than this, and of course the records are not too numerous the farther back you go.

However, we have this 'Richard Nunnally/Nunnery' in Henrico Co. VA. and I think the above names show that there lived a clan of them there in Westminster in the 1500's. There seems to be the two male lines, and it appears to me that there must have been an earlier ROGER and RICHARD, and it is hard to tell which is the father. This book was classified into three categories- 'Burials' - 'Christenings' and 'Marriages'. It was indexed by names- then under 'B' - 'C' - 'M' - and then under the years- and then the months in order, and then the dates ran consecutively. There were two large volumes. The marriages were limited (on the Nunnallys), so where they came from before this, I do not know. When I first began to look it up in England I decided there must (?) have been at least ONE living in the LONDON area, as it was a thickly settled part of England, and maybe this Richard could be traced to some Parish not far from some point of (EMBARKATION) to America- for this Richard in VA. appears in the Courts of Henrico Co. circa 1692-94. I spelled these eaxctly as they were spelled in the record, and it would not surprise me at all to find this VA. RICHARD is a descendant of this clan.

KEY TO ABBREVIATIONS AND SYMBOLS

Where no special reference is given the name is to be found in the alphabetically indexed papers in the Old Records Division, Adjutant General's Office, War Department, Washington, D.C., or in the Navy Department.

Parenthetical inserts following many of the names indicate that there is definite reason to believe that these were only variations of the same names.

AB - An Account Book of 1775-76 in the State Library unindexed, referring to early service of many who appeared in later Revolutionary records.

BW - Bounty Warrants. Applications for grants of Bounty land, a collection of loose manuscripts indexed in the State Library.

C - "Collins History of Kentucky", an accredited work

CL - Preceded by a numeral. The 15 Virginia Regiments of the Continental Line. Thus 10 CL refers to the Tenth Virginia Regiment, Continental Line.

dmp.- Declarations of Militia Pensioners. Often inaccurate as to actual service, but included here because of genealogical data contained. Many of these, in more detail, are also to be found in J.T.McAllister's "Virginia Militia in the Revolution."

E - "Index of the Revolutionary records in the Virginia State Archives," compiled by Dr. H.J.Eckenrode in 1912 and 1914.

EP - An unindexed lot of Executive papers in the State Library containing recommendations for militia officers and other data.

IP - The Illinois Papers. A collection of rolls of militia and regulars in the Illinois Department now in the State Library, indexed in the State Archives.

mpl - Militia Pension List. Compiled from a report of the Secretary of War in 1835, "Pensions," Vol II, of men receiving pensions for services as Virginia Militiamen. Approximate ages in 1833 and counties of residence at that time given, West Virginia still being a part of Virginia.

nbl~~b~~l - Name appeared on Army Register, but had not received bounty land. An extensive compilation in the War Dept.

pens - A pensioner, according to the report of the Secretary of War in 1835, "Pensions" Vol II. Copy in State Archives. Places of residence of pensioners after war given.

pet. - Petitioners: preceded by the name of a county. Petitions presented to the Legislature. A Loose collection of manuscripts in the State Library filed by counties and indexed.

Pitts - A list of Militia paid off at Pittsburgh (Fort Pitt) in 1775, indexed in the State Library. It is probable that these were Colonial troops in Dunmore's War late in receiving their pay. Their names are included here as interesting data, and it will be noted that practically all of them immediately joined the Revolutionary forces.

rec - Recommended. Virtually synonymous with "appointed" or "sworn" in regard to militia officers. Recommendations for militia commissions were recorded in the county order books, and when issued by the Governor's Council the officers took oath.

Rom. - A list of militia paid at Romney in 1775. It is probable that these were Colonial troops late in receiving their pay. It is noted that practically all of them immediately joined the Army of the Revolution.

SP - State of Virginia papers in the War Department which one would expect to find in the State Archives.

T - Purporting to be all of the manuscripts in the State Library pertaining to George Rogers Clark, photostated and bound, but not indexed. Serial letters, volume numbers and page numbers given.
Thus T-CV2P6 means Serial C, Volume 2, Page 6.

WD - War Department emphasizing that the record is there.

 NUNNALLY ******

THE NAME

The spelling of NUNNALLY as now used by a larger number of those of English origin, descended from early arrivals in the Virginia Colony is strictly an American Variant. Such spelling is not found in the early 16th and 17th Century English records, and today is rarely if ever so used. Some English records dating between 1586 and 1729 give this family, among others : NONILY, NUNLY, NUNILY, NUNNER, NUNNERY, NUNNEY, NUNALE, NUNNILY, NUNNALEA.

In 1616 there was in existence the village of NUNNELY[28] in the Parish of Salop, County of Shropshire.

In addition to NUNNALLY, the Virginia branch of the family of today uses several other variants such as : NUNNALLEE, NUNNALLEY, NUNNALY, NUNNLEY and others. Since the first arricals early in the settlement of the Virginia Colony many ways of indicating the name were used from the simple NUNLY AND NUNRY, until the present time wherein the several branches have stabilized their individual preference. While some retain the original root name of NUNN, many others use a more elongated form developed over the years.

The various spellings in earlier years were caused by local and colloquial pronunciation, the phonetic spelling of clerks and copyists, the limits of literacy, and very frequently the almost impossibility of correctly interpreting the fancy and exaggerated penmanship formerly in vogue.

As an example of the difficulty in maintaining a standardized usage, it is noted that Private John Nunnally of the 15th Virginia Regiment, Continental Line has in a ten month period a different surname on pay and muster rolls, nine times. While there were many persons in Virginia prior to the 1790 census, tabulated as NUNNALLY, we find no such usage in North Carolina. In this State however there were NUNNERY and NUNNALD. We also have the spelling to a limited extent in Virginia of NUNNERY.

It is interesting to note that in Cumberland County, Virginia in 1779 THOMAS NUNNERY purchased land; one of the witnesses was his brother who signed as ARCHELAUS NUNNALLY. A year later in 1780 this land was sold under the name of THOMAS NUNNALLY. Both the NUNNALLY and NUNNERY are now well established lines, and there is little doubt that both stem from the same root.

"Hotten's" records indicate that one RICHARD NUNN, age 19 arrived in the ship "Increase" April 1635[25]; also that ADDAM NUNNICK age 25, came in the ship "David" in September of the same year,[26]. These are very likely the progenitors of the family of today.

All of the early Virginia Branch of the family which today use the name NUNNALLY or one of the closely allied variants, almost certainly stem from their earlier English progenitors in Essex, Suffolk, Northampton, Norfolk and other Counties, originally NUN, NUNN and NUNNE. The expansion of the name is assumed with good evidence, to be by one of the usual methods of deriving surnames, namely identification with the area of residence. Probably beginning with NUNN ATTE LEY (Nunn of the grass lands or pastures) gradually becoming NUNN A LEY, NUNNALEA, NUNNALEY, NUNNALLY.

Consider the will of WILLIAM NUNNALEA[29] Yeoman of Pytchley, Northhampton, England 20 June 1626" leaves his movables to his wife and to his brother LAWRENCE NUNN £ 5"

The English families of the name were mostly of the Gentry and Yeomantry, using as their Coat-of-Arms : Crest; a bull's head erased, per fess, ar. and gu., armed and crined, of the last.
Arms ; Sa. a saltire between four lions gambs or.
Motto: Suaviter in modo, fortier in re.

The NUNNALLY and Variants of English lineage, generally use the above Coat and Motto. There are some branches however of the NUN and NUNNE line that have adopted as their Crest either: An arm, in armour, embowed, in hand a battle axe; or the same except with arm vambraced.

There are also in America today some NUNNALLY'S /Variants of Irish descent who sometimes use a composite of the Coats of the families of NUN and ALEGH (NUNALEGH, NUNALLEY etc).
Two Crests are used together above the Shield denoting the two families united. On the Shield: Vert. a saltire between four eagles, displ or.
The same Motto is used : Suaviter in modo, fortier in re.

A Welsh Branch of the family, who generally spell the name as NUNNELEE, came to Virginia in the early 1800s. Later they moved into Georgia, Alabama, Florida and other Southern States.

THE NUNNALLYS OF HENRICO COUNTY, VIRGINIA

The name was being used and spelled in some cases NUNNALLY in Henrico County, Virginia prior to 1663. It was in that year that RICHARD NUNNALLY was fined 1000 pounds of tobacco for non-payment of Church Tithes. This early Dick Nunnally, appears to have been a rather boisterous chap in his earlier manhood, as he had several skirmishes with the legal authorities, and was apparently familiar with the local gaol.
Richard who used the name of NUNNALLY and who was probably born about 1637-1640, could well have been the son of the RICHARD NUNN, born in England in 1616 and who came to the Colony in 1635 at the age of 19.

RICHARD NUNNALLY apparently the first of the name born in Virginia, was apparently the main progenitor of the NUNNALLY Clan that became very prolific, living in the area of Henrico County that later became Chesterfield, and moving rapidly into the entire Piedmont area.

This family of NUNNALLYS were very ardent patriots in the fight for independence from England, and there was only one Virginia Company in the Revolution, that did not have one or more on their muster. The large majority were soldiers of the Ranks, mostly Privates with a few Non-Commissioned Officers. From several families there were three brothers, a number with two; and in at least one case a father and two sons.

The first RICHARD NUNNALLY of Henrico County born circa 1637-1640 appears from available records to have had at least two sons: RICHARD and THOMAS. RICHARD (Jr. or II) in turn had sons: RICHARD III, WILLIAM, DANIEL, JOSEPH, JOHN and WALTER. These are known to be the parents of a number of the NUNNALLYS that moved into other areas. Some of the above named were in the Virginia Forces, and some had sons participating.

By 1783 there were a minimum of thirteen heads of households in Chesterfield, and one or more in AMELIA, CUMBERLAND, HALIFAX, POWHATAN and CHARLOTTE Counties.

Robert C. Nunnally married second, 27 Jan. 1875, DEMETRY BARTON[3] of Amelia, the daughter of F.W. and F. Barton.[2] Seven children were born of this marriage:

12-15-1875 Bettie F. -- Married ____________ Sale;

5-19-1882 Thomas W. -- Married_____________

4-3-1887 Richard S. -- Married Rosa Waxenbaum: no issue

2-16-1890 Cora O.

As of March 1966, two of the above are living: Mrs. Bettie F. Sale and Thomas W. Nunnally.

Robert C. Nunnally and some of the children, continued to live on the same land in Cumberland until circa 1906, when they moved to Richmond, Virginia. Demetry Barton Nunnally died in Richmond June 20th, 1917. After her death Robert moved to Amelia to live in the home of his daughter Sallie, (Mrs. James L. Hall) He died in Amelia Dec. 19th, 1918. Both he and Demetry, and some children of both marriages are buried in the D.L. Nunnally section of Oakwood Cemetery, Richmond, Virginia.

Roberts brothers were John A. and Henry A. His sisters, Maria F. Sally C.; Tabitha M.; Nancy B.; Rodoshe (Docey) M. and Lucy M.

Robert C. Nunnally enlisted as private in the Confederate Forces, March 1st, 1862, in Company A. of the 2nd Virginia Artillery.[4]

II

John Morris Nunnally, the father of Robert C. Nunnally was the son of John Nunnally and Mary (Polly) Morris Nunnally of Amelia and adjacent Counties. He was born circa 1795-1798 and on 16 April 1819 married Sally P. Holt[3] the daughter of John Holt of Amelia and Elizabeth Blackwell Holt of Halifax County.

This union produced six girls and two boys :

John A.

Maria F. married Alexander Tinsley[3] November 27th, 1845

Sally C.

Henry A. married Virginia A. Foster[3] September 15th, 1854.

Tabitha M. married Obdiah Henry Maxey[3] Jan 10th, 1850. He was killed in action with the Confederate Forces.

Nancy B.

Rhodoshe M.

Lucy M. married DeMarcus Traylor[3] of New York, September 13th, 1855.

John M. Nunnally apparently died shortly before his mother's will was executed May 1st, 1841.[5]

John's widow, Sally Nunnally died at age 67 March 1st, 1860.[6]

John M. Nunnally had one older brother named Anderson, and no sisters.[7]

Anderson Nunnally married Frances __________. Their children:

Louisa Augusta, married William Maxey May 7th, 1837[3]

Mary F. , married Samuel H. Hurt, August 27th, 1838[3]

Laureen (Lovey) E. ; John C. ; and Thomas C.

Amelia Court records confirm that Robert C. Nunnally is son of John Morris Nunnally; and grandson[5&7] of Mary Morris Nunnally in # III following.

III

John Nunnally the father of John Morris Nunnally and grandfather of Robert C. Nunnally was born circa 1750-1760. Extensive research has failed to definitely prove his parentage, due to the loss of important Amelia Records; in particular the Court Order Books 1782-1784 are not complete. From certain evidence as will be shown herein, he is believed to be the son of Joseph and brother of Obediah Nunnally, all three in the Revolutionary forces.

John Nunnally the father of John M. Nunnally, is definitely known to be the husband of Mary (Polly) Morris of Amelia. She was 22 years of age the daughter of widow Tabitha Morris when they were married 14th March 1785.[3]
John was born ca 1756 and died 1808.[8]
Tabitha Morris died 1805[9]. Her will mentions sons Thomas and Clairborne; daughters Rodoshe and Polly Morris Nunnally.
Polly widow of John died 1843.[8&10]

Military records indicate that John Nunnally of Amelia, served first in the 2nd Virginia Militia, transferring to the 15th Virginia Continental Line after his father Joseph died in service 1st October 1777 at Burlington N. J. John was serving as Sgt. when he transferred or was drafted with the same rank in January 1782 into Colonel Armands Legionary Corps, and according to statement of Captain Harry Bidinger, of Armands Corps, served until Corps dissolved November 1783 at York Town, Penn.[13]

Records are in conflict at this point:

In October 1783, Obediah Nunnally, submits claim for land as Heir At Law for his deceased Father, Private Joseph Nunnally and deceased brother, Sgt. John Nunnally. Warrants 2635 and 2636 were issued on 25th Feb. 1784 for 100 acres and 400 acres. Obediah's claims were supported by statements from Robert Craddock Lt. 15th Virginia Regiment dated 21st October 1783[11]; also by father of Robert, William Cross Craddock, 23rd Oct. 1783.[12]

In the case of death of Joseph, place of death and time is specified, which are confirmed by records in National Archives. Concerning John Nunnally, only a general statement is made : "He is since dead, while serving in the army." There are no confirming records in the National Archives as to the death of John in service. There is the record of Captain Harry Bidinger that the Sgt. John Nunnally who served with him in Armands Corps was alive 22 October 1800.

The National Archives has records of several Private John Nunnally from Virginia, and one Corp. John Nunnally. At least two of these died in service. They record only one Sgt. John Nunnally, who is a member of Colonel Armands Legion. The term of enlistment, service and all details, where they can be checked point to one and the same man, John Nunnally, brother of Obediah and son of Joseph of Amelia County, Virginia.

As indicated, John Nunnally, apparently of Amelia was married in that County 14th March 1785 to Mary Morris daughter of Tabitha Morris.

Amelia Court records 23 June 1785 "Orders that John Nunnally be summoned to appear at next Court and give Counter Security to John Gooch, the Administrator of the estate of Joseph Nunnally, deceased "[14]

The same record as of 29th August 1785 states, "John Nunnally appears and releases the Administratorship of estate to John Gooch."[15]

It should be noted that the widow of Joseph was alive in 1780 but apparently dead at this time, 1785.

It should also be noted that Obediah Nunnally was still an active resident of Amelia at this period and for a number of years. In December 1785 we find him in suit versus James Mann in which Obediah recovers a small amount, probably on unpaid note. There were several such actions by Obediah.[16]

The natural question arises, WHY WAS JOHN NUNNALLY INVOLVED IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE ESTATE OF JOSEPH NUNNALLY - DECEASED, WHEN OBEDIAH NUNNALLY WAS AVAILABLE AND PREVIOUSLY CLAIMED TO BE THE HEIR AT LAW?

Assuming that the John Nunnally, involved in the estate was of legal age, he was born prior to 1764 and a contemporary of Obediah and the supposed dead brother John. He could not have been a grandson of Joseph. John certainly had some intimate connection with the estate, closer than Obediah, otherwise why was the Heir At Law of Obediah negated in favor of John Nunnally? From a rather complete history of Obediah, we know he enlisted at an early age and was born between 1760 and 1764. Captain Harry Bidinger places birth of John in 1756. The only solution appearing to fit all the facts, is that John Nunnally is the older brother of Obediah, and who returned home after he was thought to be dead.

Considering that all of this transpired in the Winter, the distance apart of Armands troops and those returned home to Amelia, the great difficulty in travel and communications, the further knowledge that there were two or more John Nunnallys killed in service, it is quite reasonable to understand that Sgt. John Nunnally could well have arrived home several months after he may have been rumored as dead.

To establish that the John Nunnally involved in Amelia Court records in connection with estate of Joseph Nunnally is same John Nunnally as married Mary Morris :

2nd October 1788 Amelia Court[17] John Nunnally Pltf. Vs David Asslin Dft. Date for trial set for later date.
September 1789[18], after lengthy trial, jury awards John Nunnally twelve pounds, thirteen shillings and ten pence, plus one thousand pounds of tobacco for court costs. One of the witnesses for John was DOSIA MORRIS.

Amelia marriage records, 24th June 1791 Francis Asselin and Edith Cobbs. Surety THOMAS MORRIS.

Dosia (Rodeshe) and Thomas Morris were brother and sister of Mary (Polly) Morris, wife of John Nunnally.

Joseph Nunnally

Was living in Amelia County at the time of the Revolution. He was born in Henrico County, later Chesterfield County, circa 1725-1735 and was the son of Richard Nunnally (Jr.) The date of his marriage is not known. His widow was alive in 1780 but died prior to 23rd June 1785.[19]
Joseph enlisted in the 15th Virginia Regiment 21st March 1777 for a period of three years, as Private. He died in service 1st October 1777 at Burlington N.J.[12 & 20]

The brothers of Joseph were Richard (III), William, Daniel, John and Walter. These are known to be parents of a number of Nunnallys who moved into other areas. Some of these were in the Virginia Forces and some had sons participating.[21]

The known sons of Joseph were John and Obediah.
John served first in the Virginia Militia and later as Sgt. in the 15th Virginia and then in Armands 5th Virginia in Military District of Ohio.
Obediah served with brother John in 2nd Virginia Militia. He married Elizabeth Baldwin of Amelia 8th March 1784 and a number of children were born of this union. He continued to live in Amelia (later changed to Nottoway) until his death in 1822. His widow survived for some years, being awarded a pension in Caswell County N.C. in 1846 at age 85.[22]
A detailed record of the children of Obediah and Elizabeth are available from the author.

V

Richard Nunnally (Jr. or II)
Was born in Henrico County, Virginia, probably around 1665. His marriage was probably ca 1690. He was the son of Richard who was in Virginia prior to 1663, and who may have been born in Henrico.

The sons[24] of Richard Nunnally II were : Richard III; William; John; Daniel; Walter and Joseph.

Richard Nunnally II, died in 1727.[21]

VI

Richard Nunnally
One of the main progenitors of the family in Virginia was living in Henrico County prior to 1663. He was probably one of the first in the Colony to use the present spelling of NUNNALLY He probably was the son of the Richard NUNN born in England in 1616, coming to Virginia in 1635 at age of 19 where he no doubt married and established a family. Richard Nunnally was probably born ca 1637-1640.

While it is definitely known that JOHN NUNNALLY# III, is in direct lineage from above RICHARD NUNNALLY# VI, it has been the thinking of the compiler of this genealogy, that no extensive research will be justified under headings IV, V, and VI, until #III is definitely established.

M. William Hatcher

Walter Nunnelee - As I said before I think this is the one I am interested in.

You will no doubt notice that the name Nunnelee was spelled many different ways by the same person and by the same family. I haven't put where I got each bit of this information but just wanted to give you a brief outline of what I had. Did I understand you right that you had done some research for a Nunnelee or Grunnell? I certainly would appreciate your sending me if you have any address of anyone by that name. (Nunnelee) I have worked on this line for about 9 years and I still haven't proven anything definite. I have a brother living in Atlanta and when I come to Atlanta I try to do research work in the library there.

Also, if you have or know anyone that has published any books on other counties that you think might help me I certainly would appreciate your letting me know. Also, after reading this if you think either of your books will help please let me know and also which book was sold out the one on Wilkes or Lincoln County

Thanks again,
Mona

Walter (I think this might be the one I am interested in but I have no prove whatever. I found where a Walter Nunnelle married a Caroline Gresham in Talliferro Co, Ga. (I might not have spelled that right) April [illegible] 1828. However, he must have been a lot younger than his brother and sisters or he was a lot older than his wife. or this could be another Walter As I found a land record in Wilkes Co. (pg 114) Nunnellee - Wm. Womack to Walter Nunnelee 400 acres on Beaverdam Creek for L5 - grant 1785 to Byrd Braswell Dec 12, 1787. Chas [illegible] W. H.Tait, Test.

My great-grandmother's name was Cornelia Carolina and she had two brothers one was named Eugene L. and the other one was named Jimmy (probably James) and he was killed in the Civil War. He married and I think had children but again no prove just what the family said.

Cornelia Carolina Nunnelle born 29 Aug 1837 died 16 January 1892 [illegible]

Eugene L. Nunnelle born 1847 (Savannah?) and died I think about [illegible] or around that time. The family said they came from Savannah but I have not found anything to indicate that this is right. Their father was a lawyer and they had a planation outside of Savannah. After the war, Eugene came home and found his mother, sister, Cornelia, and an old slave woman that stayed. The rest had run off and the home was burnt and they decided to come to Texas. Both she and her brother named their sons Walter so it seems they had a particular like for that name and people were great in those day to keep family names.

* These are in Districts, and a Number of said district will follow the numbering of said pages.

 These are not in the page numbering of the enumerator, but are the page numbers found on the right hand side of the microfilm, those added at the National Archives.

All names of persons will be followed by a code of the county, then the page number, then if in districts, either the district number, or the variant numbering was used.

TALLAHATCHIE County was the most difficult county to read and transcribe, so if you are positive a family was in Mississippi in 1860, and was not shown in this, then I would suggest you try this county. Also, one must remember the three counties, and I have shown them above, where there is no census for 1860.

* This in the body of the index signifies that there is a question about the name, and many of these are indexed in three, four or more various spellings.

Dear Mary:

I don't have much to send you today, but you will enjoy my little surprises anyway, I hope.

(1) Enclosed is your copy of the will of the first Richard Nunnaloy written in 1727.

(2) The will of John who was one of his grandsons and is 3.5 in Shortel's book. John's son named John, Jr. is the man I claim as my ancestor. That John and his brother Thomas are the ones who migrated to Tennessee and the ones I am researching.

Neither of these wills pertain to you that we know of so far, but they are good records to have.

(3)The other record enclosed concerns some of the Nunleys in No. Carolina that may come in handy sometime. The lady who compiled these records lived in SLC and worked on the Nunleys (Nunnerys) at the Archives there all the time. She is now dead, but I write to her 81 year old sister and the sister is the one who sent me these records. They have names of them that I never found before on the official records. A lady I write to is researching Elisha Nunley who lived in Rowan County, and now I will be able to tell her who her Elish married.

Let me know what you find out on your Edward Nunnellee.

I am anxious to get copies of the Tennessee census ~~when~~ you will mail me when you have time to make copies. I sure won't make any copies of them. Sure don't want to break the copyright laws. I just can't imagine what kind of censuses you have dug up. Very anxious to see.

Sincerely,

Fran Koole

Dear Mrs Koole:

Yes, I have been researching Nunnally for several years and have completed a little book on Nunnally Genealogy. Unfortunately I only had 50 copies printed and they are all gone or I would send you a copy.

I confined my book to the Nunnallys that I had definite information on. I started some years ago with my grandmother who was Mary Gray Nunnally, born in Shelby Co. Ala. I found her father to be Aaron Ellis Nunnally and his father Moses Nunnally. Moses was in the Revolution as was his brother John Nunnally. Both were sons of Archelaus Nunnally who was born in Chesterfield Co., Va. John migrated to Ga. from Va. after the Revolution and was the progenitor of the Nunnallys of Georgia, of which they were many. I have all I know of in my book. Moses went to Ala. and I have all I could find of his descendants. In my research I encountered several other Nunnallys who were descended from other branches than Archelaus and I included all I found. There were many Nunnallys, Nunnerys and Nunleys that I couldn't identify so I left them out. I think, however, that they are all connected since there weren't many of any of these names anywhere in this country in 1790.

You state that your Nunleys left Virginia around 1802-1809. My John and Moses Nunnally above left Va. around 1805 or so. Their father Archelaus Nunnally had a brother named Thomas who called himself Thomas Nunnery in one deed and Thomas Nunnally in a later one. The spelling of the name in the various war records varied all over the map but still the same phoenetically.

You name a Jeremiah Nunley along with Thomas, John, William and Archelaus. I have only one Jeremiah Nunnally. He was the brother of Archelaus and Thomas above by a second marriage of his father XXXXXXXX John Nunnally. John's first wife was Martha, widow of John Keatt and his second wife was a Margarett as named in his will. I have nothing on this Jeremiah. There was also a John, Jr. about whom I know nothing. I don't have anything on the Thomas Nunnally above either. So, you see, there are many possibilities for you to connect up with.

My Nunnallys who migrated from Va. in 1805 were of the fifth generation as I number them and were of the Revolution generation. The earlier generations were as follows: Richard^{1} Nunnally born ca 1640 Henrico Co. We don't know his origin. He had two sons Richard^{2} Jr. and Thomas.^{2} Richard^{2} had Richard^{3} III, William,^{3} Daniel,^{3} Joseph,^{3} John,^{3} and Walter.^{3} (I have data on all but William^{3} and Daniel^{3}). Thomas^{2} above had only Thomas,^{3} Jr. Richard^{3} III had James^{4} and Henry.^{4} I have nothing on James.^{4} Joseph^{3} had Joseph^{4} Jr. John^{3} was mine I mentioned above. He had John,^{4} Jr., Archelaus,^{4} Thomas,^{4} and Jeremiah.^{4} Walter^{3} had Walter Womack^{4} Nunnally. Thomas^{3} Jr. had Peter,^{4} Thomas^{4} III, John,^{4} Daniel^{4} and Zachariah.^{4}

I looked up the Nunnallys in England and found them only in Shropshire Co. and the spelling there was as varied as it is here. There were Richard~~s~~, Thomas, John, William and Edward. Of course these are all old English names. If you can go back another generation in your line maybe you can tie in with me. Let me know. Good luck.

Sincerely, Joseph Adams Shortal

Dear Mary:

Thanks so very much for your short letter and the 3 pages from the "Cherokee Blood Newsletter" by Shirley Hoskins. No, I didn't have a copy. And yes, the lady who sent in her inquiry on William Nunley (whose mother was a Cherokee) will have to be a cousin of mine, although I have never heard of her. I will write to her immediately. Thanks to you, she and I will now be able to exchange some info. This just may be the break both of us need to solve the mystery of which early Nunley was the father of her William and my John (brothers). She may not know what I know - that their mother was a Cherokee half-breed, etc. From the looks of her quiry, she is very knowledgable about our Nunleys who settled in Warren Co. Tenn. Sure hope she is.

I am surely sorry to know that your Dad has been ill since July, and in the hospital twice. I imagine he is in a retirement home by now and not living alone now! I hope he is near you so you are not having to drive so far to see him on the weekends, like you were doing when you wrote me last.

No, I don't believe Elizabeth Dannelley is ill. I received a letter from her about a month ago. We have been corresponding frequently but not about genealogy or the Nunnelys. You will be surprised to know that my Godbolds on my father's side came from her neck of the woods, and so her hometown of Jefferson played a big part in my Grandmother (Godbold) McNeil's girlhood since she was born and raised near Jefferson. I have been to Jefferson, although I did not look up Elizabeth while there since there were 8 people in the party.

The town is fascinating and I can hardly wait to go back again to see it next summer, but without my friends next time. At that time, I will go to see Elizabeth and let her show me the side of the town that the tourists don't see. As you may already know, Jefferson is a "tourist trap" since it is almost exactly as it was 100 years ago. The southern plantations there are fantastic. Elizabeth's home is always on tour every year during the town's homecoming in early May. Her home is of course one of the most outstanding (built in the 1850's). You may not know this, but she was born a Dannelley and after she was widowed, she married her 1st cousin who was also a Dannelley. He died and so she is again a widow.

I'm enclosing a couple of pages concerning our Nunnelys which may be new to you. A friend of mine in Virginia sent them to me. I sent copies to Elizabeth D. also

How is your daughter Kathleen these days? In your last letter (written 3/11/84) you said she had been divorced about a year; was working at the hospital, and had ordered her first car (a Toyota). Also, that she had started seeing a young man who is a pharmacist, but just good friends.

And how ~~is~~ are Dick and the rest of the family doing? My family in Houston are going great guns. Everybody successful and making money, and all very happy. And Tom and I are well and happy, so ~~I coul~~ count my blessings every day. Right now I'm going "crazy", trying to stop smoking, after 40 years. I'm on my 7th day and it is driving me up the wall. Please write me. Love, Fran

Nov. 27, 1981

Dear Mary,

No, I didn't leave the Country nor did I die. I'm still the same old Fran, just a little bit more wrinkled than when I wrote you last. Your last letter, written in March, has been on my dresser, staring me in the face. I finally got tired of looking at it, so I thought I had better answer during the long Thanksgiving holidays.

I more or less took a break from genealogy for several months and am now getting serious about it once more. I cured my ulcer with Tagament so that wasn't the reason I slowed down. I just got tired of getting nowhere and banging my head against a blank wall. So I put it out of my mind, more or less, because I was getting too depressed and getting zero answers.

I saw an ad in the Genealogical Helper, answered it, and the genealogist's answer was so great, that I am off and running again.

Her name is Lucille Scott of Merritt Island, FL. She specializes in Cherokee genealogy - and boy, is she good! Her letters are very professional and she is smart. Right away, she sent me copies of the enclosed pages, and right now she has ordered the records backing the info up from the National Archives.

All of these Nunleys listed are my very own people from Grundy Co. Tenn. Martha Ann Nunley Mitchell and her 2 brothers were first cousins of my very own GG Grandfather Adam Nunley. Their father Jeremiah was a brother of Adam's father named Elias.

The most amazing part of this discovery is the fact that Martha tells who her grandfather was in her statement or affidavit. She says he was John Nunley. This means that my Adam's grandfather was John and that is the "magic" name I have spent hundreds of dollars looking for over the past several years.

I am amazed that the most important question was answered in such a round-about way, when I least expected it. This is all the proof I need. Now I can put the pieces of my puzzle together and genealogy can be fun again.

The other most important thing about this Cherokee linkage is the fact that some of my Nunleys went to Okla. Territory. I always thought they went south before, to the Alabama Indian country. So now I know for sure that the earlier ones did go south (remember Thomas Nennerly that you found for me?) – but the later ones went to Okla. and then to Texas. I'm not sure what kin Thomas and John were to one another, since Thomas was a generation older, but they were kin - although not father and son. Maybe uncle and nephew.

Here is another new twist: my Elias (born 1804) had a habit of leaving his family in Tenn. for long periods of time to go live with the Cherokees. This is family oral history.

I don't know if he went to Alabama (Cherokee country) to Okla., or elsewhere. Before, I thought it had to be Ala., but now I wonder if it wasn't Okla., since his nephews and niece went there. Martha says in her statement that her father wanted to go but never did, so maybe her Uncle Elias (also called Ellis) Nunley went there too.

Since no census was taken in Okla. before 1880, I wonder how I can look for Elias before then. I doubt that he was on any of the rolls since he seemed to come and go at will.

Do you have any ideas? I need your help and ideas badly. Our Elias appeared last on the 1840 Tenn. census and then again turned up in th 1860 census for Jackson Co. Ala. which is directly south of Grundy + Marion Cos. Tenn. There were no land transactions made in TN after 1844, but many before then. This indicates he was "gone" for maybe 20 years. All of us working on this wonder where he went. Very intriguing.

How are you doing on your Kentucky Hendricks by now? I hope the 32 pages you received from the genealogist helped. Genealogy is great fun when one makes a little bit of progress.

Tell me about Kathleen, now that she is married. I would love to know.

And tell me about yourself. Are you still O.K.? It's been so long since we wrote, just about anything could have happened.

Please try to forgive me for not having written sooner. My husband scolded me about it terribly. He thinks you are great, just as I do.

Sincerely,

Fran Koole

P.S. Thanks so much for the records on Moses Nunley. You are a sweetheart!

May 2, 1982

My dear Mary,

I was very glad to get your letter but at the same time so very sorry to learn about your sister's illness. I read your letter written in July, 1980 over once again, since it told me in detail about her cancer. She had had surgery and would take cobalt treatments soon after - all this at the age of 43. She is too young to die. That is why it hurts everyone so deeply. I am sure she knows the end is near, and is prepared. It is in God's hands now. The doctors did all they could. I know this is doubly hard on your parents whom you are so close to. You have alot of burdens to bear. My heart goes out to you right now.

I am glad that you are still working at the library right now. It will help you to keep active right now,

So glad to know that you are making progress on your own Rose and Popejoy lines. It's time for you to lay off the Nunneleys for awhile.

I am frankly surprised that you worked on it as long as you did. All you did was butt your head against a stone wall. No great discoveries to keep you excited.

I have made a great discovery on my Nunley line just recently, and so I am off and running again.

It all happened when I answered an ad in the "Genealogical Helper". A genealogist (Lucille Scott) specializes in Cherokee lineages and the rolls listing them. Lucille found my Nunleys on the Guion Miller 1908 roll. That was when all the descendants tried to prove their ancestors suffered undue hardships, due to being part Indian (Cherokee's "Veil of Tears" forced march, etc., etc.), and so the descendants should be rewarded for being part Indian and thus qualify for part of the million dollars the Federal Government set aside for those who qualified. Well, my Nurleys didn't "qualify" and got no money, but they sure tried hard. I have copies now of all their applications and affidavits, obtained from the National Archives. They sent me copies of everything. Just great from a genealogical standpoint. Even though they were losers, I am a gainer, because they told all they knew about their Cherokee linkage, which wasn't much. That is why they didn't qualify for the million dollars that was distributed.

But I was the gainer. They

Mary, I'm flying to TN on my vacation 5/15 to do more digging and visit my buddies. I'm real excited already.

They told that their grandfather was John Nunley and that his mother was a Cherokee half-breed. John was born around 1775 in NC or VA, I guess. This was my GGGG grandfather, the mystery man I have been searching for so long. He was the father of my Ellis (or Elias). They said so in their affidavits, since Ellis was their uncle.

No, none of your Nunleys applied, so don't get your hopes up. I have a list of every Nunley who did apply and yours didn't. None from Hickman Co. TN applied. Just the ones in Warren and Grundy Counties where my Nunleys lived.

Drop me a note from time to time, and let's keep in touch. I will be thinking about you every day and worrying about you.

Your pal, Fran

Dear Mary,

I haven't written to you in a very long time because I am no longer researching my Nunley line in Tennessee and elsewhere. I'm working on my Godbold line (So. Carolina, Alabama and Texas) and having lots of fun doing it. By the way, I retired in March '85. Are you still working at the library in Bartlesville?

You may see the enclosed article in the current "Ansearchin News" if your library subscribes to this Tennessee Genealogical Society's bulletin. I do not take it any more but a friend sent the article to me. I imagine this Karen Cooke is a daughter of Martha Cooke whom you have corresponded with.

I'm also sending a copy of this to Elizabeth Dannelly in Jefferson, TX.

Sincerely,

Frances Koole

Re: NUNNALLY FAMILY

Dear Ms. Nunneley,

I found your name on the research registration at the Springfield (Missouri) Library and although the spelling of our surname is not identical, I always like to check out all variations of the spelling.

My grandmother, Elizabeth D. Nunnally (m. James Wesley Kirkham) was the eighth child and only daughter of Benjamin F. Nunnally (b. 1843 in Chesterfield County, Virginia) and Elizabeth (Betsy) Young Garvin, She was born in Crawford County, Missouri in 1863 and the family later moved into Carroll County, Arkansas...probably between 1863 and 1870...as they were listed on the 1870 Arkansas Census.

Benjamin F. Nunnally's seven sons were: Leonard b. 1845, James T. b. 1847, Patrick H. b. 1849, Thomas A., b. 1851, Lawson, b. 1855, William A., b. 1858 and Erwin or Edwin D., b. 1860. All were born in Missouri. Leonard m. Belle Kirkham; Patrick H. m. a Sarah_______; Thomas A. m. Margaret C. Orel/Orrell; and Lawson m. Sarah F. Miles.

Leonard had sons, Mark Bomroy, Fred and Tilford Gunter.

Lawson had sons Harry F. (or E.) and James Leonard. James Leonard died in Gbenpool, Okoahoma in 1918.

I am sorry that I do not have more on my Nunnally line. I only began serious research recently...having mainly worked on my Kirkham line.

If there is any possibility that we are "tied" in any way, would like to hear from you. We plan on being back in Virginia in the fall to do further researching....my Ball family came from Fauquier, VA.

Sincerely,

Rowena Ball

Dear Mary,

Jean Nunley Denision was kind enough to send me your address. I understand you have information on Leonard Michael Nunnally and his son Benjamin Franklin.

My wife, Patricia McIlvaney Lysell is the great grand daughter of Benjamin Franklin. Her grandfather was Ewin Davis Nunnally, Benjamin's youngest son born in 1861 in Franklin County. I'm enclosing an outline descendant family tree for Benjamin. I understand you have a lot of the information on the older children.

We have traced Benjamin Franklin from Crawford County, MO to Franklin County, MO to Carroll County, AR. We're trying to learn if Ewin moved to Arkansas with the family and then returned to Franklin County where he was married or if maybe he stayed in Franklin County.

Ewin was only nine when the family moved in 1870. He was married in 1891 to Mary Ellen Collins. We'd be interested to learn any information you might have on why the family moved, if Ewin moved with them and if Benjamin still owned property in Franklin County after he moved.

Thanks,
Mike Lysell

Hello Mike,
Jean was in error concerning my knowledge of the Benjamin Nunnaly family. My husband is descended from Anderson Nunneley of Amelia Co. Va to Hickman Co. TN - Joseph Nunneley of Hickman Co. TN to Carroll Co. AR and Franklin Co. AR - Lawson Harrison Nunneley of Madison Co. AR to Oklahoma.
I have had contact with a lady in 1981 who was of your family. Her name is Mrs. James N. Ball (nee Rowena Kirkham). Her address at that time was:
921 East Delmar Street
Springfield MO 65807
1-417-862-6426 (unlisted)
The Carroll County Historical Society, PO Box 249, Berryville, AR 72616 published a wonderful book in 1991 called "Carroll County Families, These were the first". Rowena Kirkham Ball contributed the biographies of the Nunnally family for the book. Rowena's grandmother was Elizabeth D. Nunnally, only daughter of Benjamin F. Nunnally, married James Wesley Kirkham.
If you are unable to contact her at the above address, you might try the Carroll Co. Historical Society. If Rowena is a member, they may help you contact her.
Sorry I could not help in your search for Ewin Davis (or David) Nunnally.

I would very much like to obtain a copy of an estate settlement in your county which pertains to an Anderson Nunley (Nunneley). I have been told this estate settlement is recorded 2 July 1849, but do not know the county book number. If it is possible to find it by date alone, I would much appreciate it.

I am enclosing a check for $5.00 which I hope will cover copy of this record and a self-addressed, stamped, envelope. If the cost is more, please advise.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

~~[illegible]~~
On this 10th day of September in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred & thirty two personally appeared before the [illegible]
Court of the County of Hickman aforesaid Edward Twombley a resident of Hickman County and State of Tennessee aged seventy six years, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. That he entered in the army of the United States in the year 1776 about the 1st of [illegible] for the term of twelve months in the Virginia State line with Capt. Falkner I was first commanded by Col. Epps, a relation of Thos. Jefferson, who [illegible] a true republican & was afterwards made president of the United States. At the time [illegible] commanded as the troops had not arrived nor were they form-ed into regular Regiments, & it may not appear upon the muster roll that he commanded Capt. Falkner's Company, for as soon as the troops had all arrived & the regiments completed, our Company was transferred to the 8th Regt. commanded by Col. Isaac Read. This was at Williamsburgh [illegible] we marched to the Northern Neck Richmond County. From thence we marched back to Portsmouth & from thence we returned to Williamsburgh
During this period I was in the battle at the Great bridge in the County of Norfolk
I served my full term of twelve months & was discharged, but have lost or mislaid my discharge. I do not recollect whether Epps or Read commanded the regiment during the battle; my father died while I was in this campaign & after I was discharged I went home to my mother. This tour I served as a private soldier. I was after this drafted for Eighteen months in the capacity of Sergeant, as will appear by the discharge herewith [illegible] and prayed to be taken as a part of this declaration. This expedition Capt. Bainger commanded the Company.
I was in Col. Campbell's the Regiment. Col. Campbell was killed at the Eutaw Springs in a battle with the British, & that is the reason that my discharge is signed by Thos. [illegible] Capt. Commandant. ~~[illegible]~~ is written with ink except the [illegible] of the word Sergt. Ink powder was very scarce, gun powder having been very much used just previous to the date of my discharge
I left the army at the date of my discharge being the 1st of [illegible]
While in this latter campaign, I was in the battle at Guilford Court house on the 15th March 1781. I was at the battle of Camden South Carolina on the 25th April 1781. I was also in the battle at Fort Friday on the Congaree River. I was also at the Siege of 96. I volunteered to storm the fort, together with about one hundred. We were led on by [illegible] [illegible] a Dutchman who came over with the Marquis de La Fayette, by the name of Cusiaskus. Four balls went through my clothes & one grazed my left arm. About four [illegible] only returned from the charge unhurt. The next Battle I was in was at the Eutaw Springs on the 8th Sept. 1781. During this cam-paign I marched through N. & S. Carolina, was discharged & came home after many toils and dangers. I hereby relinquish every claim whatever to a pension or an annuity except the present & declare that my name is not on the pension roll of any agency in [illegible]

W. 176

Dear Madam:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request information in regard to Edward Nunelee, a Revolutionary War soldier who received pension while a resident of Hickman County, Tennessee.

The data which follow are shown in the papers in the claims for pension and bounty land based upon service of Edward Nunnelee in the Revolutionary War and of Nathaniel Sunderland in the War of 1812, now on file under W. 176.

Edward Nunnelee lived with his parents in Virginia at the time he entered service in the Revolutionary War; their names are not shown, nor the date and place of Edward's birth. His father died while Edward was away in service under his first enlistment.

Edward Nunnelee entered service sometime in 1775, in Virginia, served as private in Captain Faulkner's company under Colonels Eppes and Isaac Read in the Virginia troops, was engaged in the vicinity of Williamsburg and Norfolk, was in the battle of Long (Great) Bridge, and returned home to his mother, length of this service one year. He enlisted later, served as sergeant in Captain Thomas Bowyer's company, Colonel Campbell's Virginia regiment, and in Colonel Thomas Edmunds' Virginia regiment, was in the battles of Guilford Court House and Camden (1781), Friday's Fort, the siege of Ninety-Six and Eutaw Springs, and was discharged January 6, 1782, having served eighteen months.

The soldier resided in Hickman County, Tennessee, in 1817.

He was allowed pension on his application executed September 10, 1832, at which time he resided in Hickman County, Tennessee. He was then seventy-six years of age. Edward Nunnelee died at his home there on April 19, 1836.

Edward Nunnelee married June 8, 1817 (shown also 1819 or 1820) in Hickman County, Tennessee, Mary Ann Sunderland, then the widow of Nathaniel Sunderland; she was born June 26, 1800; her maiden name was Reeves (or Reese the names of her parents are not shown) this surname not clearly written.

Mary A. Nunnelee, widow of Edward Nunnelee, was allowed pension on account of his service in the Revolutionary War on her application executed November 7, 1853, at which time she resided in Centerville, Hickman County, Tennessee. She was allowed one hundred sixty acres of bounty land on account of his service in that war on her application executed September 11, 1855; she received warrant #34914 for 160 acres under the Act of March 3, 1855. In 1866, her post office address was Columbia, Maury County, Tennessee; she stated then that she had resided since his death with relatives in Hickmand and Maury Counties, Tennessee, but did not state any names.

Nathaniel Sunderland married February 25, 1813, Mary Ann Reeves (Reese); they were married by a Justice of the Peace in Maury County, Tennessee. John Johnson and Elizabeth Burns were present at this marriage.

Nathaniel Sunderland enlisted at Fayetteville, Tennessee, February 18, 1814, served as private in Captain James Davis' company, 39th Regiment of United States Infantry and died February 1, 1815 while in the hospital at Pearce's Mill, while in service in the War of 1812.

Mary A. Sunderland and one child were allowed five years' half pay on account of his service and death in the War of 1812; the name of said child is not shown. (This widow, Mary Ann Sunderland, married the Revolutionary War soldier, Edward Nunnelee, whose record is as above).

Mary A. Nunnelee was allowed bounty land on account of service of her former husband, Nathaniel Sunderland, in the War of 1812 on her application executed March 18, 1851; she received warrant #20889 for 160 acres under the Act of September 28, 1850. She was allowed pension also on account of his service in the War of 1812 on her application executed March 2, 1853, at which time she resided in Centerville, Tennessee.

Mary A. Nunnelee died November 10, 1883, near Centerville, Tennessee.

In 1853, this pensioner stated that she had no children under sixteen years of age; she did not state the names of any children.

If you desire to ascertain the name of the child of Nathaniel Sunderland and his wife, Mary Ann Sunderland, you should apply to The Comptroller General, General Accounting Office, this city, and cite the name of the soldier and the Act (April 16, 1816) under which the five years' half pay was granted.

If you desire information in regard to the location of the land which was granted Mary A. Nunnelee, you should apply to the Commissioner, General Land Office, this city, and furnish that official the following data: warrant #20889-160-50 and warrant #34914-160-55, with name of the soldier in each case.

Very truly yours,

Attention: Research Room

Per our telephone conversation, this date, I am writing to request assistance in obtaining copies of military land warrants which may be housed in the Public Records Division of the State Library or with the Secretary of State in Kentucky.

The copies of land warrants I am searching for are referenced in a book written many years ago by Willard Rouse Jillson titled, Old Kentucky Entries and Deeds and are as follows:

MILITARY WARRANTS (1782-1793)

NAME	ACRES	WARRANT #	SERVICE	DATE
NUNALLY, DAVID	100	4148	VA	4/24/1786
NUNALLY, JOSEPH	100	2635	VA	2/25/1784
NUNNALLY, OBADIAH	100	2605	VA	2/24/1784
NUNNALLY, OBEDIAH	400	2636	VA	2/25/1784

I am enclosing copies of the pages from Mr. Jillson's book which lists the military warrants in which I am interested and also, enclosing my self-addressed and stamped envelope for your convenience to reply to my request.

I appreciate any assistance you might be able to give to me in trying to locate copies of these warrants.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

THE RUSSELL MAP OF KENTUCKY

This map, originally produced in 1794, was the first good map of Kentucky and the adjoining territories. It shows seven subdivisions of the three original Kentucky counties—Lincoln, Fayette and Jefferson. The Russell map was republished in 1795 with slight revision by John Reed in New York, but without author's name.

EDWARD NUNNELEE

Edward Nunnelee, the son of William Edward Nunnelee, was born in Craven County, North Carolina about 1756. His application for pension filed in 1832 states:

"I entered into the Army in the year 1776 about the first of February for the term of twelve months in the Virginia State Line with Captain Falkner.

"I was first commanded by Col. Epps, a relative of Thomas Jefferson, he such a true Republican was afterwards made President of the U. S. At the time Col. Epps commanded us the troops had not arrived nor were they formed into regular regiments, and it may not appear upon the muster roll that he commanded Capt. Falkner's company, for as soon as the troops had all arrived and the regiment completed, our company was transfered to the 8th Regiment, commanded by Col. Isaac Read. This was at Williamsburg. Frpm thence we marched to Northern Neck, Richmond County; from thence we marched back to Portsmouth; and from thence we returned to Williamsburg.

"During this period I was in the battle of the Long Bridge in the county of Norfolk.

"I served my full twelve months and was discharged, but have lost or mislaid my discharge.

"I do not recollect whether Epps or Read commanded the regiment during the action. My father died while I was in this company and after I was discharged I went home to my mother. This tour I served as a private soldier.

"I was after this drafted for eighteen months in the capacity of Sergeant, as will appear by this discharge herein enclosed, Marked (a), and prayed to be taken as a part of this declaration. This expedition Captain Bowyer commanded the company I was in, and Col. Campbell the regiment. Col. Campbell was killed at Euraw Springs in a battle with the British, and that is the reason my discharge is signed by Thos. Edmonds, Captain Cpmmandant.

"My discharge is written with Indigo, except the names of the officers and the word 'sixth' with ink. Powder was very scarce, gun powder having been very much used just previous to the date of my discharge, being the 6th day of January, 1782.

"While in this campaign I was at the Battle of Camden, S. C. on the 25th of April, 1781. I was also in a battle at Fort Friday on the Congaree River. I was at the Seige of Ninety-Six. I volunteered to storm the Fort, together with about a hundred others. We were led on by Campbell and a Frenchman who came over with Marquis de LaFayette, by the name of Cusiaskus. Four balls went through my clothes, one grazed my left arm. About four men only returned from the charge unhurt.

"The next battle I was in was at the Eutaw Springs on the 8th day of September, 1781. During the campaign I marched through the North and South Carolina, and was discharged and came home after many toils and dangers."

In his History of Hickman County, Spence says that "Ned" Nunnelee, who came from Virginia about 1806 to the 5th District, came to Gray's Bend about 1810, and died there, on April 19, 1836, at the age of 80.

In 1817 he married Mary Ann (Reeves) Sunderland in Hickman County. He was 60 years old and she was seventeen. At the time he married he was one of Hickman County's magistrates. The children of this marriage were (1) Edward Washington who married Margaret Priestly and moved to Texas; (2) James D. L., who married Lucy Jane Fowlkes; (3) Timothy Jefferson, who married Rachel Williams and moved to Missouri; (4) Isaline Isabel, who married Andrew Jackson Baldwin Nunnelly; and (5) Jane, the first wife of Jesse R. Eason.

Mary Ann "Polly" Nunnelee, the widow of Edward, died near Centerville 10 Nov 1882, forty-six years after his death in 1836.

Since then he has vext me with a law suit, therefore I have no obligation and have given all my negroes to my good friend John James Flournoy, dec'd, and now to go to his children
